Germany in the World

This map provides an overview of Germany’s international engagement through diplomacy, development cooperation, culture, trade, and defense in 2020.

Germany's diplomatic missions, including 153 embassies, 54 consulates-general, 7 consulates, 12 multilateral representations, and one representative office, as well as 337 honorary consuls-general and honorary consuls on a voluntary basis.

Goethe Institutes in 98 countries – in the past 5 years, German language courses at the Goethe Institutes abroad recorded an attendance of more than 1.2 million.

Chambers of Commerce Abroad in 92 countries with more than 50,000 memberships.

Countries with bilateral governmental development cooperation, including 42 bilateral partners, 8 global partners, and 10 nexus and peace partners.

Current Bundeswehr deployments with around 4,000 soldiers.

Completed deployments (since 1991) with around 4,000 soldiers.

Completed deployments (since 1991). Girls in the Middle East and North Africa receive primary education through an innovative education program implemented by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research.

Current bilateral deployments with around 30,000 soldiers.

Current deployments and completed deployments since 1981.

Chambers of Commerce Abroad

Bilateral partners are states that conduct bilateral economic cooperation within their own governmental framework, including 42 bilateral partners, 8 global partners, and 10 nexus and peace partners.

Global partners are states that conduct international cooperation, including 227 countries.

Nexus and peace partners are states that conduct international cooperation, including 157 countries.

Current deployments and completed deployments since 1981 with around 140,000 soldiers.

This map is part of the Munich Security Report Special Edition on German Foreign and Security Policy "Zeitenwende | Wendezeiten" https://doi.org/10.47342/SBID8214

The boundaries shown on this map are not intended to be exhaustive and do not imply any official endorsement. Includes closed offices; branch offices are not listed separately.

Concept: Laura Hartmann, Munich Security Conference, October 2020.

Design: MetaDesign